The Association is dedicated to the principle of its founding members: to offer the services and programs that will give municipal officials the knowledge, experience and tools for enabling the most efficient and effective operation of their municipalities in the complex world of municipal government.

This is your opportunity to put your company in front of thousands of municipal elected officials and municipal employees.

By supporting the Municipal Association of South Carolina as a patron, your company is helping to support our cities and towns to make them quality places to call home.

The Association offers various levels of patron membership. Review this brochure to decide which patron level will work best for your company.
